Students look hard to find a part-time job that suits them and that they can have fun doing. Getting out and finding a job during high school is both good for students now, and will help them in the future. Fast food, convenience stores, clothing stores, restaurants and small businesses, are all fine places for high school students in need of work. Most places require students to be sixteen or older. The town of Middlebury is full of part-time employment for Northridge students, but Elkhart and Goshen also offer many options. Volunteers

To some, volunteering means more than just raising your hand to answer a teacher. Volunteering means giving up a bit or a lot of free time to help those who are in need of assistance. Helping others and sharing your talents are great ways to express yourself. Whether you help the young, old, handicapped, or the earth, you are doing a wonderful service to the community, as well as the people around you. So to all of those volunteers out there, we give you a hand. Thanks for your help!

Jenessa Miller and Tim Miller share the joys of chemistry together.

Jeff Bornkamp, Josh Mitchell, and Tiffany Baker strut their stuff on funky hair day.

A stroll down the sophmore hall would lead to Justin Posey at his locker. Each student at Northridge is assigned one of the 1200 lockers. Students however sometimes share their lockers with boyfriends/girlfriends and other friends. In the Northridge lockers, you can probably find anything from old gum to dead mice. Some students use their lockers as closets, keeping clothing, hats and other things in there. Locker clean-out happens once every semester, a chance for teachers to catch up on their pen and pencil supply.

Enjoying the warmth of the sunshine, Doug LaShure ponders on thoughts of summer vacation.

Kyle Martin is head over heals with team spirit at the Homecoming Football Game which Concord defeated us.

Michelle Stephenson decides to paint Ryan Brindley instead of the paper during spirit week, hoping they'll win the most spirit.

Jeff Bornkamp, Josh Mitchell, and Tiffany Baker show off their sophomore school spirit by coloring their hair green and gold.

Nicloe Klotz does the timing for the wooden car races for the science class.

Homecoming crowd includes, Sara Miller, Brooke Weirich, Kasinda Rasler, Heidi Zimmerman, Amy Rogers, April Allision, Jenny Johnson, Melanie Myers, and Liane Endres.

Lindsey Shaffer and Jeremy Neeley are busy making a spirit poster for the sophomore hall during spirit week.

David Gum and Bryon Craven talk softly so they don't disturb Brian Swinehart who yearns to learn.

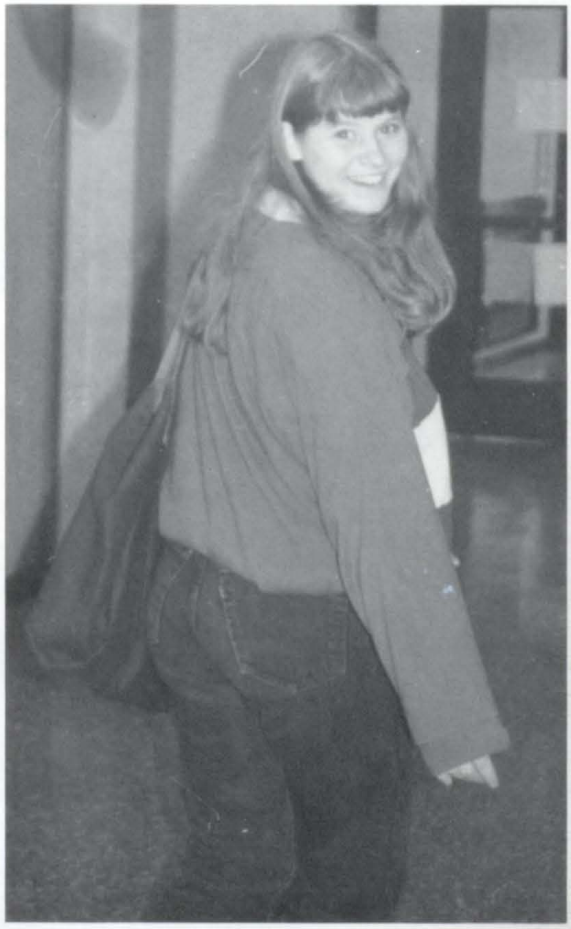
Brian Swinehart studies hard as the beat of Nasty Boys goes through his head.

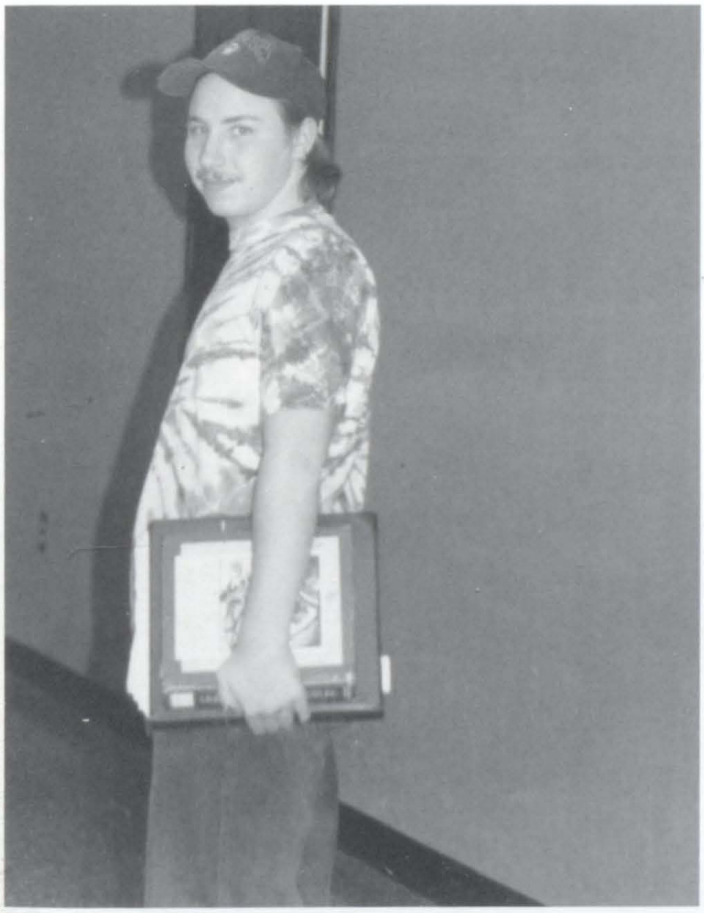
Gina Caraballo and Dawn Fair 'pop a squat' and rest at the Sadie Hawkins dance.



Michelle Lambdin shows us just how happy we can all be in the morning.

Rich Kindel sits and pays close attention to the teacher but it looks like we caught him looking at the cameras instead.

Amber Williams points to show the other freshmen where their chairs are in the class. Having seven different classes can leave you confused and forgetful at the end of the day.



Lucas Wade takes the time to stop for a picture on his way to English class. The freshmen just love to have their picture taken.

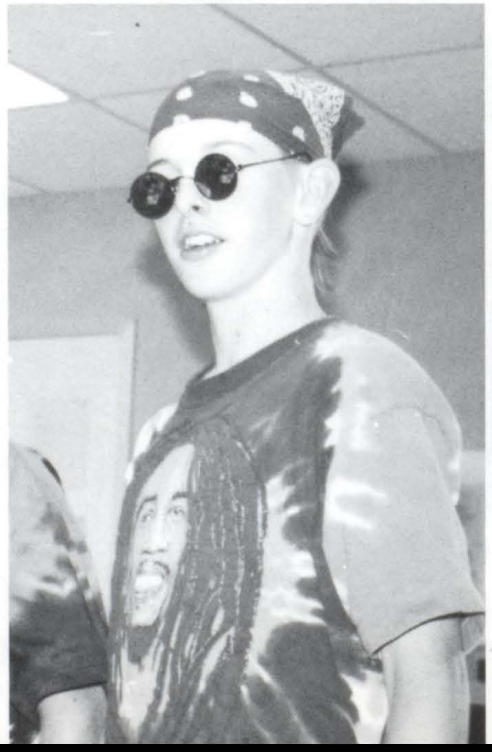
Trevor Warner, a.k.a. class clown smiles and laughs as he plans his next trick and watches the class's reaction. Being a freshmen at school can sometimes be boring, but the class of 1998 can liven it up!

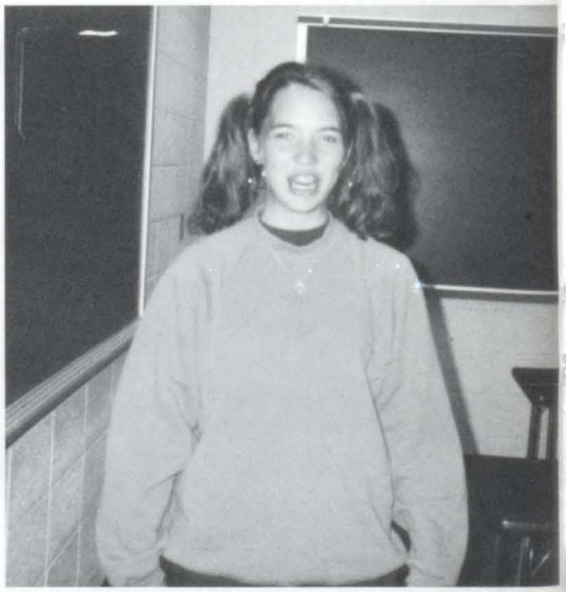
FRESHMEN FACES IN THE CLASS OF 1998

Linda Ingraffia, Tori Andrson, Carlie Kloboves, Chrisi Posey, Angela Riley, and Amber Williams tell Santa, Craig Sheets what they want for Christmas. It looks like he already has everything he wants.

Mike Zehr shows off his fancy foot work as he runs cross country and makes his Freshmen class proud!

All is better now! Chris Neeley looks 100% better and everyone is glad. Earlier this year Chris was in th e hospital after he and another friend were in a car/scooter accident. Chris was in the hospital with serious head injuries. He was moved to a rehab in South Bend Memorial. He was able to return to school for a few hours each day after Thanksgiving. We were all happy to have Chris return full time to school and everyone is glad to have him back.





Some freshman need fashion tips. Just take a look at Angela Riley luckily she fits right in for our funky hair day!

One of a freshman's many talents is fancy footwork as demonstrated by J.C. Morgan.

Wild and crazy kids! Gordon Heeter, Jimmy Rolston, Mike Bioom and Bryan Bontrager show what the freshman do for fun when they get together. Would you like to go to one of their parties?

Tiffany Baker goes all out for sprit day with her school sprit by wearing her school colors while Amanda Petry, and Jacob Briscoe look on.

Swimmers Take a Dive

This season the boys swim team finished with an eleven and four dual meet record which was outstanding considering they graduated thirteen seniors from the previous years team. In doing so they broke several school records and finished fourth in the NLC. Overall, this was the hardest working boys team I've coached and that is the main reason for the success they enjoyed. A definite highlight was beating Concord for the first time ever.

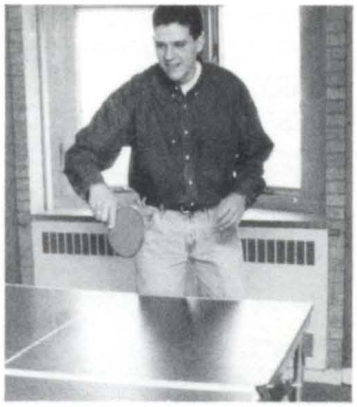
I never expected to come to Goshen College.



I thought it was too close to home, and I wanted my freedom and independence. To my surprise, GC gave me both. The people here at GC are great and I have made many new friends who have the same morals, values and spiritual beliefs as me. I find that reassuring. I do not regret coming to Goshen College for one second!

Stephanie:
May God always bless you real good, as your dreams come true.

Love &
Always,

Mom, Dad, &
Melanie.

To: Melinda Ortiz

From tiny fingers and little toes, with timeless friends, we've watched you grow. Now that you've reached one of your goals, we wish you the best for what the future holds.

"Congratulations"

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Brothers

"Congratulations Chad" We are very proud of you. Good luck in all you do!

Love,

Mom & Dad

Kellie,

You have brought more happiness and blessings into our lives than we could ever have dreamed of ..... As you close this chapter in your life and begin a new and exciting adventure at Taylor, we rest assured that God will always be your guide.

"But I trust in you O Lord; I say 'You are my God.' My times are in your hands." Psalms 31:14.... "I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made.....All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be." Psalms 139; 14. 16. NIV

Congratulations, Kellie, we love you so very much,

Mom, Dad,
Ryann and Megan.

Erica,

Don't be afraid to fail. You've failed many times, although you may not remember. You fell down the first time you tried to walk. You almost drowned the first time you tried to swim, didn't you?
Did you hit the ball the first time you swung a bat? We always told you, the heavy hitters hit the most home runs, but they also strike out a lot.

You will turn 18 and graduate all in the same month. The years have gone by fast, you became a very beautiful young lady and over the years you have learned to trust in God. Don't worry about the failures, life is to short. Worry about the chances you will miss when you don't even try. Remember to always trust in God, he will never let you down. You made your first big decision as an adult. You joined the Navy. We know you, you will do your best.

Love always,

Mom & Dad.

Candy Baer,
We always knew you could go further then the neighbors, and you did! You make us very proud. Good luck.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, & Kim

P.S. Get a faster horse!!

Jennifer,
You've had your share of problems and ADVERSITIES but your persistence and knowledge always takes you to the top. Remember to think before you speak (or record).

Your Family

Randy,
To a wonderful son and a great brother. We are so proud of you! Good Luck! And may all your dreams come true.

We love you,
Mom, Dad,&
Cheryl

Ashley Abbott,

From your first day of school, we knew you would do great things.

We love you!

Mom, Dad,

Jason,
We're all proud of the great job you've done!

Love,
Dad, Mom,

Christy Key,

Like a rose you will bloom forever. I'm very proud of you.

Mom

To all our Senior Pals, we wish you the best. Good luck in the following years. School will never be the same without you. You showed us how to have a good time, and we'll never forget you for that. Thanks for everything and have fun. Be sure to come back and visit.
